Circumstances Alter Cases

We used to say this of a poor printer who did his hand distribution poorly and mixed his types in the cases, but just now it applies to some people we know of concerning the cry of H. C. L. as applied to about everything. Most of us are perfectly willing to believe that the other fellow is profiteering, but when it is mentioned in the business we are engaged in we are shocked and deny even a possibility of large profits. We know a man who a year ago decried the high rent boosts most vociferously, that has changed his opinion and now thinks the landlords are not getting decent returns on their property; this chap has through inheritance come into possession of a six flat building, and of course sees higher rents from another angle. The man who a few years ago worked for $35 a week and paid that amount for a suit of clothes, has had his salary or wages increased to $75, but can't see why he should pay $75 for a suit now, yet he is paying only a week's work the same as before. Time will bring equalization and we will all be in very much the same position we were before the "raise" struck us.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Broderick will entertain at their home, 509 Englewood ave., this evening in honor of their niece, Miss Margaret Breman, who will be married to Mr. A. Roney Wednesday, Sept. 1st, at Visitation church. Mr. and Mrs. Roney will reside in Chicago.

How Foreigners Are Misled

A very great majority of the foreigners coming to our shores are all right and willing to obey our laws and customs when they come here, but are misled and converted to radical labor and materialistic views before they are here a month. It is but one step to lawless I. W. W. and Bolshevism, and many are taught that these are real Americanism. While much opposed to a curtailment of either the privileges of free speech or "the freedom of the press," we do insist that these poisonous influences should be stopped that make for bad citizenship in the foreign element, and even corrupt thousands of our native born. The writer, who reads several foreign languages, has sent to the government authorities several papers and "tracts" we secured from foreigners that are very dangerous propaganda, and we are informed that they are translated into many languages, and to reach those who cannot read, they are taught them by Sunday afternoon speeches held in many halls in many districts. These people must be taught that American liberty is not license to plot against the existing government, and something should be done to counteract the evil now existing.

Braden's Exclusive Dress Showing

At Braden's Smart Shop, 6239 Normal blvd., Cunningham Bldg., they are making a fine showing of many exclusive models just received from New York of street frocks and dinner gowns, undoubtedly the handsomest and most chic line ever shown in this part of the city. They also show a beautiful fall line of navy blue blouses and other garments that it is necessary to see to be able to appreciate, or get an idea of their desirability. At all times the very latest and best modes may be seen at the Braden Smart Shop and a cordial invitation is extended the ladies of Englewood and vicinity to call and enjoy their hospitality, and learn the latest approved styles of the day in ladies' wear.—adv.

Mrs. Adolph Altermatt and daughter, Verna, of 543 61st pl., have returned from a pleasant vacation in Tiffin and Findlay, Ohio.

Mrs. J. M. Hamilton and Miss Celia Brumbach of Mansfield, Ohio, have been visiting Romaine Douglass of 6400 Yale ave. for the past week.

Miss Orring and her niece, Miss Irene Edwards, of 325 Normal pkwy. are at home after a two weeks' outing at St. Joseph, Benton Harbor and Watevliet, Mich.

No sense in going to the loop for a trunk, bag or suitcase. Our selection very complete and our prices lower than loop prices. Saly's, 6431 S. Halsted st.—adv. tf.

Prof. and Mrs. L. T. Regan of 519 66th st., who have been spending their summer at their home in Roscommon, Mich., are visiting friends in other parts this week and will return home next week.

Mrs. Lester Lanyon of 415 63rd st. has returned from a visit with relatives and friends in Plattville, Wis. She has as guests her cousin, Miss Jessie Londelius of Spokane, Wash., and Miss Elizabeth Snowden of Plattville, Wis.

Mrs. R. E. Terpenny, one of the pioneers and highly respected residents of Englewood, having sold her home at 439 60th pl., moved this week to Rogers Park, where she will make her home with her daughter, Mrs. MacIntosh.

There is a hitch in the opening of Union ave., although the order has passed and the assessment is spread. The street should be opened the full width and not made a fifty foot alley, and the delay should be taken advantage of to get the full width.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moody and Kenneth of 424 61st st., have driven to South Haven for the week end and will bring home their daughter, Helen, who has been spending the month of August at the Camp Fire Girls camp.

Beautiful card and booklet souvenirs of Chicago, appropriate cards and booklets suitable for gifts for all occasions; lawn lanterns and decorations for fetes, parties and picnics. Supplies for picnics and all al fresco occasions. Tennis racquets, balls and nets at Kellner's, 443 W. 63rd st., just east of postoffice.—adv.

Mrs. Frank D. Blish of 6400 Wentworth ave. will leave Sept. 1st for an extended visit with her daughter, Alice, who is Mrs. Clarence R. Miller of Amber, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. Miller own and operate a 400-acre wheat ranch near Amber, thirty miles west of Spokane. They have two little daughters, Alice and Claire.

INVEST YOUR MONEY WISELY

6% The safest forms of investments have always been real estate mortgages secured by farm land. This is proved by the fact that the life insurance companies—the largest investors in the world—prefer farm loans over any other form of security. Producing farm land is better security than city realty. The principal value of city property rests in improvements which sooner or later become antiquated or unsuited to the needs of a changing neighborhood The unforseen influx of undesirable neighbors adversely affects the value of city real estate. Farm land is free from both of these menaces, for every year shows a steady advance in the average value of farm property. It is this constantly increasing security which makes farm mortgages so desirable. For years we have been making farm mortgages and selling them to conservative investors in Chicago. We collect interest and principal without charge. That we have succeeded in building up a reputation for care and conservatism is apparent from the fact that we now have several hundred customers in Chicago and others in over 30 states.

Send for our Illustrated Booklet describing these safe investments.

For Lieut. Governor

FRED E. STERLING

OF ROCKFORD

Submits His Name as a Candidate for the Republican Nomination at the Primary, September 15th

He stands for a strong, orderly, economical, business-like, progressive and patriotic government of state affairs—without fear or favor.

Mr. Sterling was born at Dixon, Lee County, Ill., June 29, 1869, and is editor of the Rockford Daily Register-Gazette.

In 1916, as Chairman of the Republican State Committee, he directed the successful campaign in Illinois which resulted in record-breaking majorities for both the National and State tickets.

In the off-year election in 1918 he was elected State Treasurer by 141,803 majority.

As State Treasurer, during the first 16 months of his two-year term of office, he turned into the Treasury $604,735.57 interest earned on public funds in his custody, far surpassing all previous records.

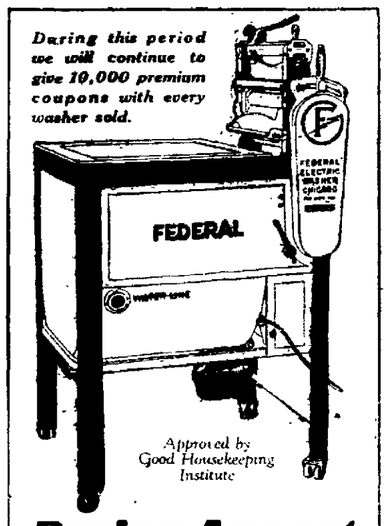
He believes in service and efficiency in public office.

His name will add strength to the Republican State Ticket at the November election.

Your vote at the Republican Primary, Sept. 15th, is most respectfully solicited.

Buy Your FEDERAL WASHER Now at the Old, Low Price

Price Going Up!



While they last, we will offer ALL FEDERALS NOW IN OUR WAREHOUSES AT PRESENT PRICES.

If you want a FEDERAL at the old price, ACT NOW before our present limited stock is exhausted — for the price will positively be advanced.

MORE than 20,000 FEDERAL Electric Washers have been purchased to date by Chicago housewives.

The FEDERAL is built up to a standard, not down to a price. Its quality will constantly be maintained.

All of the parts which enter into the manufacture of the FEDERAL have averaged 25% increase in cost during the last six months.

After our present stock of FEDERAL Electric Washers is sold, it will be necessary for us to advance the selling price of the machine very appreciably. So, again we say: Act now!

During August

We will gladly send a FEDERAL for a

FREE

Demonstration In Your Own Home

If you cannot visit one of our Electric Shops to witness the store demonstrations,

Phone Randolph 1280 Local 535

and we will cheerfully arrange a trial washing demonstration right in your own home at your convenience. This will not obligate you in any way—we simply want to prove to you, under actual working conditions, that the FEDERAL is the greatest washing machine, and the best value on the market.

Should you decide to purchase a FEDERAL, after seeing the demonstrations in our shops, or at your home, you can either pay cash, or a small sum monthly on your electric light bill.

Frank Strobel has returned from a visit to his old home in Wisconsin. He says it is bone dry up there but nearly everyone has a prescription that makes beer with an army mule kick in it.

Our foreman, Nick Schicke, accompanied by Kenneth B. Konder of 5126 Aberdeen st., is enjoying a week touring in Canada. If we didn't know Nick as a total abstainer we might think he was searching for some good old "hootch" in our British neighbor.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin A. Schaffroth, 1325 72nd pl., are entertaining for two weeks Miss Adeline Bjorkman, her sister, Miss Bernice Bjorkman, her niece, her son Thomas and her nephew, Milburn Kalm, all from Whitehall, Mich., also her niece, Beatrice Olson, from Muskegon, Mich.

J. A. Dunbar, formerly of 69th st. and Racine ave., sent the editorial family of the Times a fine box of fish from Mercer, Wis. We will never ridicule "Jack's" fishing abilities again, and believe if he had have been Jonah, he would have caught the whale before he ever had a chance to swallow the old fellow.

Detective Wm. Hennessey, who lived with his parents at 6131 Morgan st., and served in the war as a marine, with his partner, Sergt. James Mulcahy, who lived at 5704 May st., were shot to death in a "black and tan" dance hall at 2700 State st. Sunday night. The officers were there in their line of duty and ran into Hershie Miller, an ex-bailiff and pugilist, who is said to be quite wealthy, and a fusilade of bullets followed.

Big Stadium for Lindblom School

Plans for an athletic field and stadium to seat between 10,000 and 15,000 have been drawn up by the school board architects for the improvement of a site adjoining the Lindblom high school. Other plans have been drawn up for athletic facilities on a thirty-acre tract between 60th and 63rd sts. and Robey st. and Hoyne ave.

ANNOUNCEMENT!

I wish to announce to my many friends and patrons that I have succeeded to the tailoring business of Julius Grossman, at 722 W. 63d St., and will continue to operate a modern high-class tailoring business at this place.

You will be pleased to know that the high standard of PURE WOOL fabrics will be maintained throughout.

The former good quality of Hand Tailoring, however, will be greatly improved. My twenty-eight years' experience in this particular line enables me to guarantee you absolute satisfaction in this respect.

A cordial invitation is extended to drop in and look over my offerings for Fall. A thorough examination of the many attractive fabrics places you under no obligation.

Is Your Blood Starving For Want of Iron?

Without Plenty of Iron In Your Blood You Don't Get the Strength and Nourishment Out of the Food You Eat

When over-work, lack of sleep, improper food and impure air sap the iron from your blood and make you feel weak, nervous, irritable and out-of-sorts, it is important that you should at once put more iron into your blood. Without iron the blood loses the power to change food into living tissue and therefore nothing that you eat does you the proper amount of good because you don't get the full strength out of it. Your food merely passes through your system like corn through a mill with the rollers so wide apart that the mill can't grind. Because of this steady starvation of the blood and nerves people often become weakened, tired-out, nervous and rundown and frequently develop all sorts of symptoms. But the moment organic iron—Nuxated Iron—is supplied a multitude of dangerous symptoms disappear in most cases, the flesh becomes firmer, the muscles get back their strength and the roses of health bloom in cheeks that were pale and sickly looking.

No matter what other so-called remedies you may have tried, if you are not strong, vigorous, hearty and well, you owe it to yourself to make the following test: See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next, take two five-grain tablets of ordinary Nuxated Iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see for yourself how much you have gained. You can obtain Nuxated Iron from your druggist on the distinct understanding that if you are not fully satisfied your money will be refunded

Miss Irma Fremont, 2158 111th st., is spending two weeks at Waverly Beach, Ind.

Mrs. Henry Wilder, 9757 Prospect ave., has returned from a two weeks' visit at White Lake, Mich.

Miss Phyllis Arnemann, 9235 Winchester ave., will enter Beloit College this fall.

Misses Geneva and Mildred Terwilliger, 10318 Prospect ave., will leave for the Camp Fire Girls' camp in Michigan next week.

Ridge swimming pool, 97th st. and Longwood drive, promises some wonderful water contests to be held Sept. 4 in the afternoon. Fancy diving, racing and life saving stunts will be shown. Medals will be awarded for the zest exhibitions.

NATIONAL THEATRE

For the second week of the season the management of this popular playhouse has picked a play that stands alone in its gripping qualifications. "The House of Glass" has more human interest in it than most plays of modern times; it was played for over a year at the Candler Theater in New York, and was originally produced by Cohan & Harris, who have the reputation of never picking a bloomer. Even the comparatively young theater goer may remember the time when the stage heroine couldn't be happy until she was married, but in "The House of Glass" the heroine's troubles begin with matrimony, and it is therein that the play is human. It tells a powerful story that will interest you all the way and it gives the members of this popular company a chance to play something a little different from what you have seen them in. The production given this play will be just as near the original as it is possible to get it, and in this play there is a lot of opportunity for pretty scenery and costumes. Every woman should see it, and every girl cannot afford to miss it, and bring along their sweetheart. Matinees Sundays, Thursdays and Saturdays at 2:30 and every night at 8:15 sharp. At the Sunday and Saturday matinees children under 14 years of age will be admitted for the small price of 10 cents and 5 cents war tax.

ENGLEWOOD THEATRE

Ladies' Bargain Week Day Matinees, Seats Twenty-five Cents

A welcome visitor to the Englewood theatre commencing Sunday matinee, Aug. 29th, will be Barney Gerard's "Some Show," with Tommy "Bozo" Snyder, "The Man Who Never Speaks." This attraction is one of the most popular burlesque companies on the road and the impression they left last season is well remembered and will undoubtedly be greeted by a capacity audience

"Some Show" from advance reports is one of the most pretentious of the season. The scenery, costumes and electrical effects surpass any of Barney Gerard's previous productions.

The book presented by "Some Show" is a two-act musical upset, "The Auto Wrecking Crew," the book of which was written by Mr. Gerard with an accident to an automobile necessitating the hiring of an auto wrecking crew which leads to many funny complications Tommy "Bozo" Snyder, as one of the auto crew, is even funnier than he was as the piano mover.

The all-star cast headed by Tommy Snyder, the clever pantomimist, being the only man on the stage today who goes through an entire performance without saying a word, is an unusually capable one. The scenery and costumes are quite up to the standard of Barney Gerard and the chorus one full of attractiveness and is termed "Some Chorus."

MARLOWE HIPPODROME

Englewood's pretty old home theatre has been in the hands of the artists and builders all season and as a result is entirely rebuilt and refitted as well as handsomely decorated As the management says 'It is all new but the building and as a result when the doors are opened at the matinee of Saturday Sept. 4th, the friends of the Marlowe will see one of the largest and most comfortable play houses in the city and enjoy the excellent plays and star acts of vaudeville with extra gusto and appreciation

The bookings have been careful and complete for the coming season and not a star attraction on any circuit but has been secured so that Marlowe patrons will see all of the top notchers right here at home and at prices that would seem diminutive to the average theatre goer They also have a fine booking of feature pictures the first showings in Englewood of the high class films they have always offered so that one may be sure of a real entertainment with no monotony of pictures alone or of vaudeville alone but a careful and choice selection of both judiciously blended so that every performance will appeal to every taste

Watch these columns for the announcement in full for the opening next week as it will make mighty interesting reading for those seeking the right sort of amusement at the right place and at the right prices

Sweet Potato.

It is not known certainly who introduced the sweet potato plant or when. Some authorities believe it to be of East Indian origin, but others more likely hold that it was a native of tropical America.

Drive Launched To Cut Chicago Auto Fatalities

Chicago's drive against automobile fatalities is on.

Backed by the Chicago Motor Club, an organization of 16,000 members, sponsored by Coroner Peter M. Hoffman, and carried on by 200 members of the American Boys' Commonwealth, the campaign to "make Chicago safe for motorists and pedestrians" began last Friday

Plans call for the printing of 100,000 booklets of "don'ts" for motorists and pedestrians and members of the American Boys' Commonwealth were told by the coroner to prepare for a "Safety Day" on which they will circularize the loop with the booklets.

Coroner Hoffman is preparing a city ordinance providing that pedestrians be compelled to cross streets only at intersections Crossing at any other point would subject the pedestrian to a fine.

Manager Johnny Kempton has earned the reputation as being one of the most alert managers in the entire city in securing for his pretty house the best selected pictures that are released. The coming week adds to his laurels in the splendor of his program which offers for Friday and Saturday, today and tomorrow, Alma Rubens in that Cosmopolitan production, "The World and His Wife," supported by an all star cast. It is a superlative Spanish story. The bride was young, her Spanish blood a-leap with life. The man was rich, but young no longer. When a youthful friend came into their home to live, the tongues of their world began to wag with gossip. A pulsing romance of jealousy and love. On a gay and dancing background of fandango and castanet. Also Screen Magazine and Good Comedy. Saturday extra, "The Lost City" and "The Gumps."

For Sunday only he has secured "Darling Mine," with Olive Thomas in the lead and supported by Walter McGrail, Margaret McWade and Walt Whitman. Olive plays the part of Kitty McCarthy and 'tis people like Kitty McCarthy, and the lovin' heart of her, that makes God love the Irish. She came from the green fields of Killarney to the sun-baked streets of a great city, and with her she brought hope, faith, charity—and a goat. Olive Thomas is more captivating than ever in her new Selznick picture, "Darling Mine." The Wonder Dog in "Brownie, the Peace Maker." Also "The Moon Riders" and International News.

Monday, Aug. 30th, everyone laughs and enjoys the wonderful Chicago favorite, Bryant Washburn, in Broadhurst's great stage comedy, "What Happened to Jones." It is pure and unadulterated fun from start to finish and the most laughable scene is the last and you carry a laugh home with you. "Fifteen 'drys' on a poor wet man's chest; yo' ho! and oh! for a bottle of hooth." This is the wail of a thirsty soul who married a "dry" for her money and his meal ticket. Jones gets into action as his friend and certainly he does get in good and deep. Just see it—that's all.

On Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 1st and 2nd, as a star attraction, Manager Kempton will present Maurice Tourneur's wonderful story, "The White Circle." In "The White Circle," Mr. Northrup is a gentleman-adventurer who assists an old London banker to escape with absconded funds in return for the latter's daughter. The story, adapted from R. L. Stevenson's "The Pavilion on the Links," is one of love and adventure, with the lonely north Scottish coast as the background. Spottiswoode Aitken, Jack Gilbert and Janice Wilson are also in the cast. There will also be comedy attractions of merit.

On Friday and Saturday, Sept. 2nd and 3rd, the E. A. R. will draw great audiences to see Constance Talmadge in "The Perfect Woman." This title isn't so hard to believe since late developments in the constitutional convention that will give all women the vote. But "Connie" goes the best one better. She vamped a Bolshevik—what girl wouldn't vamp one, if she thought it was going to save her sweetheart from losing his head. Of course Connie vamped him a la Bolshevisky. First she gave him a drink, then she tapped him gently but firmly on his dome with a piece of bronze statuary. Also Booth Tarkington's story play, "Edgar's Hamlet." Every play a feature.

LINDEN THEATRE

Always The Best . . Better Than The Rest — 63rd Street at Halsted

Manager Tom Johnson has a fine line of attractions for the coming week and will be sure to have a "full house" at every performance. Today and tomorrow, Friday and Saturday, the Linden will show Thomas Meighan in "The Prince Chap." A tender play of tears and laughter portrayed in a picture of wonderful heart appeal. A bachelor with a baby. And he living in an artist's studio with a crowd of wild bohemians! But the baby had come to stay. While her friendless mother lay dying, the Prince Chap had promised—though it cost him the woman he loved.

THOMAS MEIGHAN in

On Sunday and Monday, Aug. 29th and 30th, they offer Katherine MacDonald in "The Notorious Miss Lisle." Shall a woman be judged by her past? Can the ghost of the past be eluded? The romance of a beautiful girl who fights the condemning but elusive shadow of suspicion and establishes her innocence in the face of a world that sternly scorns her. Also usual added comedies and travel pictures every day.

On Friday and Saturday comes Enid Bennett in a brand new production called "Hairpins." It's about the wife who is good but sloppy, and doesn't wake up to the fact she is out of date until another woman parades into her life. She then rouses, uses the brains you'd never have suspected her of having, and beats the other woman at her own game. Also some excellent comedies and travelogues.

On Tuesday and Wednesday the old time Englewood favorite, Dorothy Dalton, will be seen in that lurid love romance of "Guilty of Love." This is the story of a young girl who "loved not wisely, but too well" and the dramatic events that followed. Miss Dalton, as the pretty New England heroine, has ample opportunities to display her remarkable qualities as an emotional actress. The story is one of intense heart appeal, lightened by flashes of humor and the star's buoyant personality. Also a splendid comedy.

A special feature attraction for Thursday, Sept. 2nd. Don't miss it.

Harvard

Another week of splendid pictures and latest offerings of the world of filmdom is shown at the Harvard theatre this week. Manager Costin seldom makes an error in his bookings and this week he has exceeded himself in the meritorious selection of pictures his patrons will see at the pretty Harvard Ave. home of the silent drama.

For today and tomorrow, Friday and Saturday, he offers the queen of comedy, drama, Constance Talmadge, in "The Perfect Woman." It is the story of Mary Blake, who vamps her way into the home of Jimmy Stanhope, multi-millionaire, and supposed woman-hater, bringing a series of amusing and pleasingly thrilling incidents into one of the most novel climaxes ever witnessed, and as an added attraction, Booth Tarkington's "Edgar's Hamlet," the Pathe News and "The Gumps." Saturday matinee only, Ruth Roland in "Ruth of the Rockies."

For Sunday and Monday, Aug. 29th and 30th, the greatest play of the day in "The Prince Chap," in which Thos. Meighan, assisted by Bila Lee and Kathlyn Williams, present this beautiful picturization of Edward Peple's famous stage play. It is a tender play of tears and laughter, portrayed in a picture of wonderful heart appeal. Once there was a young American prince chap who loved a beautiful lady. One day a tired-out artist's model died and left him her little friendless daughter. But the beautiful lady did not understand, and went out of the prince chap's life. Only little Claudia remained. What was the end? A story appealing beyond words.

On Tuesday, Aug. 31st, comes for one day only, J. Warren Kerrigan's latest Brunton production, "The Green Flame," a mystery play by the eminent playwright and novelist, Raymond G. Hill, which has been released through the W. W. Hodkinson Corporation. In "The Green Flame" Kerrigan plays the part of a clever private detective who subverts the desperate plan of a notorious crook ring to steal a priceless emerald. The star is supported in this picture by a well rounded cast, headed by Fritzi Brunette, his talented leading lady.

Thursday, Sept. 2nd, adults only, an appealing story and beautiful settings feature Dorothy Dalton's new picture, "Guilty of Love." Miss Dalton has the role of a young New England woman who, left impoverished by the death of her father, becomes governess in the home of a rich New York society dowager. She becomes involved in an unfortunate love affair with her employer's brother which results in a forced marriage between the two.

The Old Market Basket

How clear to my mind are the prices once ruling
When I was a boy and could eat all my fill
When, famished, I came from my much-hated schooling
And sat down to dinner with Harry and Bill.
A great plate of meat—duck or turkey in season—
Corn, turnips, asparagus, peaches galore,
With three or four pies—there was no earthly reason
To stop except stomachs that would not hold more—
All came from the basket, the brown wicker basket,
The old market basket that father once bore.

How oft in the present when worried and harried
I think with a sigh of those days of delight,
And picture the basket that father then carried
And brought home filled up to the brim every night.
How fresh were its contents, as fragrant as honey,
The prices, all told, made a laughable score.
How eagerly, gladly I'd plunk down my money
For three times their cost at that time, even four,
If fresh from the basket, the brown wicker basket,
The old market basket that father once bore.

If you train your servants the way they should go, the first thing you know they are gone.

Casey says, "Aven those iv us thot hov no eye fer beauty, appreciate a handsome income."

A man called at Kellner's yesterday and asked for "a check book cover for a lady that folded in the middle."

Casey says: "The sun niver says the dark side iv inything."

Mr. Hotchkiss, the express agent, sent the following notice to an Englewood man: "Dear sir: Please send without delay for the case of books directed to you, which is lying in our warehouse and is leaking badly."

The new servant girl was told to order the family vegetables at the grocer's. After noting what was asked for, the tradesman inquired. "Won't your mistress want any horseradish today? Some just in, nice and fresh." Tossing her head indignantly, Mary Jane replied: "No indeed; she don't want no such a thing. Master keeps a motorcar!"

Englewood Commandery Pilgrimage

Englewood Commandery No. 59, Knights Templar, will participate in a pilgrimage to Rock Island, Ill., to attend the annual conclave of the grand commandery, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, Sept. 1st, 2d and 3d. The commandery will be accommodated in tents at Black Hawk Watch Tower park, one of the prettiest and most historical locations in the state, and a program each day will make this an event in the lives of those who attend. A special train will leave the Rock Island 67th st station at 7:38 p. m., Tuesday, Aug. 31st. Special accommodations will be arranged for those who motor across the state.

Friends of Irish Freedom

A picnic and demonstration will be held at Riverview Park Saturday, Sept. 4th, by all the local councils of the Friends of Irish Freedom. The list of speakers includes Mayor Thompson, Hon. Laurence Ginnell, member of parliament, Harry P. Boland and John Fitzpatrick, president of the Chicago Federation of Labor. There will be athletic contests, dancing and a general good time.

Knights of Columbus Athletics

The Knights of Columbus, who won nation wide fame for their welfare and athletic work among the Yanks in France, have taken over the administration of the Central Association of the A. A. U. senior track and field meet, which will be held at Stagg Field, Chicago, Aug. 28th, starting at 2:15 p. m. Special interest attaches to the two "Casey" contests—the 100-yard dash and the mile relay—since both these events will be suburban councils versus the city. Knights of neighboring sections are deeply interested in the efforts to organize representation in these events. The official A. A. U. championship program of twenty events also will be run off and there will be an exhibition wrestling bout which will be referred by Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight boxing champion.

Children's Hour at Pullar Shop

Children's Hour is the name of an unique experiment tried this week by the Pullar Shop, and which will continue to be a feature the rest of the week.

The hour between 4 and 5 was set aside for the youngsters, and a special program arranged for their benefit.

The program includes stories, singing and recitations, and on Friday there will be an added feature in the form of a doll dressing contest, for which a prize will be given for the most attractively dressed doll.

Miss Frances Pullar, a Montessori teacher of Philadelphia, has acted as hostess.

Favors have been given every day to each child attending.

Veterans Foreign Wars, U. S.

This is the constitution and bylaws of the gold chevron organization: Establishes for you a stable and responsible post. Membership limited to overseas men. Makes you a citizen of the United States if foreign born. Allows you a voice in the order through the officers you help to elect. Guarantees you privileges and benefits a soldier, sailor, marine are entitled to. Makes you equal with all members. Accords you power with the vote. Permits you to petition the committee to right your claims when just. Enables you to become a member of any posts of one million members. We do not discriminate or antagonize any other organization. We rest on our own laurels.

Capt. Marshall Field Post No. 177, V. F. W., stands as a unit of members who have seen service in every campaign conducted by Uncle Sam in foreign climes or waters in the last twenty-one years. Truly a great order of veterans. If you are a veteran from over there you make no mistake when you bring your gold chevron papers to join this organization, national in scope. There were 80,000 conscientious objectors during the war and 420,000 slackers. So, dear reader, rest assured such men cannot belong—only red blooded Americans. In our community of Englewood the boys who went across are joining this post every meeting and they see the difference. We always entertain so the members will be on hand during winter.

The first man over the top belongs to our order and lives to tell how it feels. Sergeant Rooney, who was leading a platoon over the top, said to his men, "Come on over, do you want to live forever?' The ladies' auxiliary was installed last Friday evening, Aug. 20th, by National Deputy Mrs. Hartigan and assisted by National Vice-president Mrs. Robinson. Luncheon was prepared and served by the men, so all received a treat. Speeches galore. The post will meet Sept. 3d at G. A. R. hall, 6238 Princeton ave. Commander, C. J. Becker. R. O. Sigafoose, adjutant, war risk officer, 1652 W.

Sterling Is Strong for Lieutenant Governor

Fred E. Sterling, of Rockford, candidate for the Republican nomination for lieutenant governor, points with pardonable pride to the splendid record he has made as treasurer of the state of Illinois during the past year and a half. During the first sixteen months of his term of office he turned into the state treasury $604,735.57 in interest earned on public funds in his custody, a record far surpassing anything in the history of the state. This is a showing in which all taxpayers will be deeply interested and will prompt them to look with special favor on Mr. Sterling's candidacy in the coming primary. In the off-year election in 1918 Fred Sterling was elected state treasurer with the unprecedented majority of 141,803 votes, demonstrating his ability as a vote-getter. His friends are confident that his name will add much strength to the Republican state ticket at the November election. All Illinois Republicans remember the highly successful campaign which was conducted by Mr. Sterling, as chairman of the Republican state committee in 1916, when a special campaign train bearing all of the candidates toured every county in the state and resulted in record-breaking majorities in Illinois for both the national and state tickets. Mr. Sterling is the editor of the Rockford Register-Gazette, one of the leading Republican newspapers of Illinois.

Velie

PERFORMANCE

VELIE charm and beauty and snap have won for Model 48 a national reputation as the Authoritative Style. The season has shown again, as in other years, that Velie Style is matched by Velie performance. The Velie takes the grades and all other hard going with sureness and ease that give you a new experience of motor capability.

Every detail of construction and equipment is far better than expected in a car of the Velie price.

Combined with all these advantages is the saving and satisfaction due to the Velie's internally heated vaporizer developing full power from low-grade fuel. Six models, open and closed. Let us demonstrate for you.
